

Procedure VI.6001.A.e, Satisfactory Academic Progress

Associated Policy

Policy VI.6001.A, Financial Aid

Procedures

The U.S. Department of Education sets official standards of satisfactory academic progress (SAP) for students to receive financial aid. SAP standards are reviewed at the end of every semester. San Jacinto College requires a student to maintain a minimum 2.0 GPA, pass 67% of all attempted hours, and not exceed 150% of the hours needed to complete a degree or certificate.

Definitions

Satisfactory Academic Progress: refers to a set of standards required to continue receiving financial aid. San Jacinto College requires students to maintain at least a 2.0 GPA, pass at least 67% of all classes attempted (including transfer work), and earn a degree or certificate within the maximum timeframe of 150 percent of the published length of the student's active program.
